

Disposal of complaints by the Commission during the month of March, 2007.

In April 2004, the Govt. of India had designated the Central Vigilance Commission as an agency to receive written complaints or disclosure on any allegation of corruption or of misuse of office by any employee of the Government under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer. On receiving such complaints, the Commission forwards them to the concerned departments for investigation and report without disclosing the identity of the complainant. Accordingly, during March, 2007 the Commission had forwarded 04 such complaints for a report to the respective organisations. 06 complaints have been filed being petty/anonymous/pseudonymous, 11 complaints have been sent for necessary action. Upto March, 2007, 20 complaints have been sent for investigation and report, 42 complaints have been sent for necessary action and 16 have been filed. Departmental action has been advised in 54 cases.

Apart from the complaints received under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer, during March' 2007, the Commission had forwarded 75 complaints having verifiable and documentary evidences for investigation and report to the departments/organizations concerned. The Commission also forwarded 724 complaints which were either administrative in nature or having no vigilance angle for necessary action/disposal to the departments/organisations. Besides, 395 complaints which have been found either petty in nature or, anonymous/pseudonymous have been filed. Upto March 2007, 184 complaints have been sent for investigation and report, 1486 have been sent for necessary action and 1054 have been filed. Commission has advised departmental action in 13 case.
