

Disposal of complaints by the Commission during the month of June, 2006.

In April 2004, the Govt. of India had designated the Central Vigilance Commission as an agency to receive written complaints or disclosure on any allegation of corruption or of mis-use of office by any employee of the Government under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer. On receiving such complaints, the Commission forwards them to the concerned departments for investigation and report without disclosing the identity of the complainant. Accordingly, during June, 2006 the Commission had forwarded 01 such complaint for a report to the respective organizations. 04 complaints have been filed being petty/anonymous/pseudonymous. Since May'2004, 299 complaints have been sent for investigation and report, 302 complaints have been sent for necessary action and 323 have been filed. Departmental action has been advised in 33 cases.

Apart from the complaints received under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer, during June 2006, the Commission had forwarded 49 complaints having verifiable and documentary evidences for investigation and report to the concerned departments/organizations. The Commission also forwarded 337 complaints which were either administrative in nature or having no vigilance angle for necessary action/disposal at the ends of the departments/organizations. Besides, 463 complaints which have been found either petty in nature or, anonymous/pseudonymous have been filed. Upto June 2006, 326 complaints have been sent for investigation and report, 2169 have been sent for necessary action and 2663 have been filed. Commission has advised departmental action in 51 cases.
