

Disposal of complaints by the Commission during the month of September, 2006.

In April 2004, the Govt. of India had designated the Central Vigilance Commission as an agency to receive written complaints or disclosure on any allegation of corruption or of misuse of office by any employee of the Government under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer. On receiving such complaints, the Commission forwards them to the concerned departments for investigation and report without disclosing the identity of the complainant. Accordingly, during September, 2006 the Commission had forwarded 04 such complaint for a report to the respective organisations. 09 complaint has been filed being petty/anonymous/pseudonymous. Since May'2004, 314 complaints have been sent for investigation and report, 349 complaints have been sent for necessary action and 347 have been filed. Departmental action has been advised in 34 cases.

Apart from the complaints received under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer, during September 2006, the Commission had forwarded 55 complaints having verifiable and documentary evidences for investigation and report to the concerned departments/organisations. The Commission also forwarded 463 complaints which were either administrative in nature or having no vigilance angle for necessary action/disposal at the ends of the departments/organisations. Besides, 468 complaints which have been found either petty in nature or, anonymous/pseudonymous have been filed. Upto September 2006, 528 complaints have been sent for investigation and report, 3433 have been sent for necessary action and 4189 have been filed. Commission has advised departmental action in 77 cases.
