Dated, the 3rd October, 2007

Subject: Observance of Vigilance Awareness Week during the year 2007.

It has been declared by the Central Vigilance Commission that every year Vigilance Awareness Week should be observed. Since the year 2000, the Vigilance Awareness Week is being observed around the first week of November every year. It has been decided that this year, the Vigilance Awareness Week be observed by all organisations, falling within the purview of the Central Vigilance Commission, from November 12 to November 16, 2007. The observance of the Vigilance Awareness Week should commence with the pledge (copy enclosed) on November 12, 2007 at 11.00 a.m. During the week, organisations are requested to emphasise more on efficiency and transparency in their customer-oriented programmes. Efforts should also be made to raise awareness among the users of the services provided by the departments/ organisations, about the initiatives taken for improvement of the systems and procedures, the complaint handling policy, the avenues available for redressal of grievances, etc.

2. A report about the manner in which the Week was observed may be sent to the CVC by December 1, 2007, by each organisation.

3. This notification is also available on the CVC's website <http://cvc.nic.in>.
